1st Reading: Isaiah 7:10-14
 Psalm: 24:1-6
 2nd Reading: Romans 1:1-7
 Gospel: Matthew 1:18-24

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Hippolytus of Rome (170–235) was probably the most important theologian and the most prolific religious writer of the Roman Church in the pre-Constantinian era. Although the fate of his copious literary remains has been unfortunate since most of his works have been lost or are known only through scattered fragments, much has survived only in old translations into Oriental and Slavic languages.

One of the surviving writings of this martyr of the faith is a beautiful text which I consider very appropriate to get in tune with the approaching celebration of Christmas. It will be good to reflect on it because it clearly talks about the reality and the greatness of the historic events we are about to relive. These are his words:

"We do not put our faith in empty phrases, we are not carried off by sudden impulses of the heart, we are not seduced by plausible and eloquent speech, but we do not refuse belief to words spoken by divine power. These God committed to the Word. The Word spoke, and by these words he turned man away from disobedience, not enslaving him by force or necessity, but inviting him to choose freedom of his own accord. In the last days the Father sent the Word. In his plan the Word was no longer to speak through the prophets. He was no longer to be a figure of conjecture, announced in an obscure way. He was to be manifested visibly, so that the world could see him and be saved.

We know that the Word assumed a body from a virgin and, through a new creation, put on our old nature. We know that He was a man, formed from the same substance as we are. If He were not of the same nature as ourselves, his command to imitate him as a master would be a futile one. If He was of a different substance, why does he command me, naturally weak as I am, to do as he did? How can He be good and just? To show that He was no different from us, He undertook hard work, He went hungry and thirsty, He took rest and slept, He did not shirk suffering, He revealed the resurrection. In all this He offered his own self, so that when you suffered you would not lose heart, but rather would recognize that you are a man, and would yourself expect to receive what he received from God.

When you have learned to know the true God, you will have a body immortal and incorruptible, like your soul; you will gain the kingdom of heaven, you who lived on earth and knew the king of heaven; freed from passion, suffering and disease, you will be a companion of God and a co-heir with Christ, for you have become a god. All that you had to suffer as a man, God gave you, because you were a man. All that belongs to God, He has promised to give you, because you have been deified and have become immortal. This is what it means to know yourself, to recognize the God who made you; to know and to be known is the lot of the man called by God. And so, men, do not be hostile to one another, do not hesitate to return. Christ who is God, supreme over all, has arranged to wash man clean of sin and to make our old nature new. From the beginning He called this old nature his image, and in this way gave you a sign of his love for you. If you obey his sacred commandments, if you become a good follower of him who is good, you will become like him, you will be honored by him. God is not lacking in anything, and He made you also a god for his glory."

In two more days, the celebration of Christmas will envelop our souls. Let us contemplate then –in the austere poverty of the crib– the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger (Lk 2:12) who is the Word made flesh of which St. Hippolytus spoke. And as we gather around the manger beneath the loving gaze of Mary, let us see, in the vulnerable and weak newborn Babe who cries in the arms of Mary, the grace of God that has appeared for the salvation of all men (cf. Tit 2:11). Let us pause in silence and worship!

May this Christmastide be a time of great blessing for us, for our families and friends as we open our hearts to receive Jesus in all His fullness. May you and your families have a blessed and merry Christmas!

God Bless you!

Fr. Gustavo Nieto, IVE

From the Office of the Bishop

December 10, 2013

To the People of the Diocese of San Jose

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In late 2006, I was pleased to bring into communion with the Church members of the faithful who had been celebrating Mass and the sacraments according to the traditional Latin forms at a small church they had purchased on Homestead Road in Santa Clara. At that time, I canonically erected the Oratory of Our Mother of Perpetual Help to offer pastoral care to the people of the Diocese of San Jose who are attached to the traditional Latin Mass and other sacraments. Furthermore, I entrusted the ministry of the newly established Oratory of Our Mother of Perpetual Help to priests of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest. These priests have served faithfully in this capacity since January 1, 2007.

Because recent internal matters related to the governance of the Oratory could not be resolved in a way that is satisfactory to the Institute, the Institute has now withdrawn from its ministry to the Oratory. I wrote to the Oratory's Board of Directors and, through the board, to lay faithful who are members there, requesting them to reconsider this action by which they would be separating themselves from union with the Church. The board, however, did not rescind its previous decision. Consequently, I must now suppress the Oratory, removing its canonical status as an established and recognized Roman Catholic community in the Diocese of San Jose.

Faced with these developments, the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest has been in contact with Father Antonio Silveira of Five Wounds Portuguese National Church, which will welcome the faithful of the newly erected Oratory of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, beginning next Sunday, December 15, at 12:30 pm.

This past weekend, it was announced at Our Mother of Perpetual Help that priests from the Society of Saint Pius X will begin ministry there. This is a matter of grave concern because of the unlawful status of the Society. I offer here, by way of background, the reason for my concerns.

The Society of Saint Pius X was formed after the Second Vatican Council by Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre. On June 30, 1988, against the direction of His Holiness, Blessed John Paul II, the Archbishop consecrated bishops for the Society of Saint Pius X. Consequently, Archbishop Lefebvre and the four men consecrated as bishops were excommunicated. Although Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI lifted the excommunication in 2009, he stated: "Doctrinal questions obviously remain and until they are clarified the Society has no canonical status in the Church and its ministers cannot legitimately exercise any ministry." This means that the priests of the Society of Saint Pius X are suspended and the sacraments of Penance and Matrimony administered by these priests are invalid. Contrary to some popular belief that when the excommunication of the four bishops of the Society of Saint Pius X was lifted, the Society was reconciled to the Roman Catholic Church. This is not - nor has ever been - the case.

It is morally illicit (unlawful) for the Faithful to participate in Masses of the Society of Saint Pius X unless they are legitimately impeded from participating in a Mass celebrated by a Catholic priest in good standing in the Church (cf. Code of Canon Law, canon 844.2). The fact of not being able to assist at the celebration of the "Tridentine" Mass (Forma Extraordinaria) is not considered a sufficient motive for attending Masses offered by priests of the Society of Saint Pius X. Participation in such Masses and in the administration of the sacraments at the chapels of the Society of Saint Pius X can, over a period of time, lead to a schismatic habit of thought and heart as one slowly absorbs a mentality which separates itself from the Magisterium of the Holy Roman Catholic Church. For those faithful who desire the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass according to the Forma Extraordinaria ("Tridentine" Mass), they will find such valid and lawful Masses celebrated at Five Wounds Portuguese National Church each Sunday afternoon, at 12:30, beginning on December 15, 2013.

The doctrinal questions that remain unresolved between the Roman Catholic Church and the Society of Saint Pius X are not insignificant. A special Pontifical Commission, Ecclesia Dei, under the auspices of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, had worked toward resolution, but the refusal of the Society of Saint Pius X to accept all of the teachings of the Second Vatican Council set back these efforts. The lack of full communion of the Society of Saint Pius X with the Roman Catholic Church and our Holy Father continues to wound the unity for which the Lord had prayed: "That all may be one." Therefore, let us all pray for the Church that her unity may be healed for the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Given at the Chancery of the Diocese of San Jose, this tenth day of December, in the year of our Lord 2013.

Patrick J. McGrath
Bishop of San Jose

Blessed Pope John Paul II lost his mother before he was nine and his tender relationship with the Blessed Virgin Mary provided him with a maternal influence throughout life. He dedicated himself to Mary with the motto Totus Tuus (completely yours) and it was his heavenly mother Mary who smoothed off his rough edges, who bound up his wounded heart, who stood with him at the foot of the cross and taught him to repay hatred with love. His example of trust in the Blessed Mother Mary reminds us that we always have a spiritual mother at our side. In his message to youth at World Youth Day in 2003, he asked us to “Entrust yourselves to her with complete confidence!”

Will you offer your sacrifice to honor Blessed John Paul II on the date of his Canonization (April 27, 2014)? We want to erect a life-size bronze statue, imported from Italy, and we need your prayers and donations.

How many rosaries will you commit from December 1 to April 27 (148 days)?
Will you help raise the $50,000 needed for our proposed statue?

The Angel's Candle (Peace)

(4th candle of Advent)

The fourth candle, lit on the fourth Sunday of Advent, is the Angel's candle. As we light this flame, we are reminded of the heavenly hosts that proclaimed Christ's arrival with "Behold, I bring to you good tidings of great joy!" The Angel's Candle is purple, reminding us that it was a King's birth the angels were announcing.

Suggested Bible Readings: Ezeiel 34:23, Luke 2:15-20, John 10:11

Thank you God for the peace you give us. We ask that as we wait for all your promises to come true, and for Christ to come again, that you would remain present with us. Help us today, and everyday to worship you, to hear your word, and to do your will by sharing your joy with each other. You who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

POPE FRANCIS: "BE SILENT, SO WE CAN HEAR THE TENDERNESS OF GOD"

Dear parishioners:

We would like to share with you the message of our Holy Father. "Preparing for Christmas, we would do well to take a moment of silence to listen to God who speaks to us with the tenderness of a father and of a mother.

God speaks to us as a father or a mother speaks to their children:

"When the child has a bad dream, he wakes up, cries . . . the father goes and says, 'Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, I'm here.' That's how the Lord speaks to us. 'Do not fear, you worm Jacob, you maggot Israel' (Isaiah 41,13).

The Lord has this way of speaking to us: He is near . . . When we look at a father or a mother who speaks to their little child, we see that they become little and speak with a voice of a child and with the manners of children. Someone looking in from the outside thinks, 'This is ridiculous!'

They become smaller, right there, no? Because the love of a father and a mother needs to be close. I say this word: to lower themselves to the world of the child. . . . If the father and mother spoke to them normally, the child would still understand; but they want to take up the manner of speaking of the child. They come close, they become children. And so it is with the Lord. Normally, Christmas seems to be a very noisy holiday: it would do us good to have a little silence and to hear these words of love, these words of such nearness, these words of tenderness . . ."

Have a Blessed Christmas!
